

Dear Team,

Earlier this week, I announced that we have reached in-principle agreement with all three relevant unions (RTBU, ETU and AMWU) on a new proposed Rolling Stock Enterprise Agreement 2019-2023.

Eligible employees will now be requested to vote on the Proposed Agreement. The voting period will commence on Tuesday 3 December 2019 and conclude on Tuesday 10 December 2019.

Eligible employees will now have 10 days prior to the vote to access the Proposed Agreement and incorporated materials (this is what's called the Access Period).

I have also outlined details about the voting process and key dates, and how you can find more information if you need it.

Access Period documentation

Attached to this email are:

- A copy of the Proposed Agreement
- A copy of the Summary of Key Changes

In addition, certain clauses of the Proposed Agreement make reference to Metro policies and procedures. These policies and procedures can be found on The Depot here. If you need further information, please speak with your Depot Manager.

How to vote

Voting for the Proposed Agreement will be by 'show of hands', at scheduled voting sessions. The voting period will commence on Tuesday 3 December 2019 and conclude on Tuesday 10 December 2019

The 'show of hands' voting will require you to attend one of these scheduled voting sessions.

For clarification, the following will apply in terms of payment and breaks provided around the voting sessions listed above:

- Employees wishing to attend a 3:00pm voting session at their depot and who are working the night shift leading into the day of that voting session will be released at 05:00 (but will be paid until 07:00);

You are not obliged to vote but I encourage you to do so, so that you can have your say. If you are on planned leave and will not be able to attend any of the voting sessions listed above then please speak to your Depot Manager so that arrangements can be made to provide you with an opportunity to vote.
