Dear Colleagues,

Today marks one year since Premier Daniel Andrews announced a State of Emergency in Victoria to combat the COVID-19 global health pandemic.

While we've all been challenged personally and professionally, our achievements here at Metro make me proud.

Please watch this video:

Thank you for working as One Team One Metro.

We are not out of the danger zone but we need to push ahead with a positive mindset that the global recovery will continue.

Have a good week.

Raymond
