Subject: Message from Raymond: Victoria's snap lockdown to end

Dear Colleagues,

Premier Daniel Andrews has just announced that Victoria's snap lockdown will end tonight.

A few small settings will remain in place to keep everyone safe.

This means, from midnight tonight:

- 'Four reasons' to leave home no longer applies;
- 5km travel limit is removed;
- Masks are still required indoors (including all workplaces) – and outdoors where you cannot socially distance;
- Schools can reopen;
- Our COVID-Safe workforce bubble system resumes with 'blue' team on Thursday and Friday;
- Victorians can have five visitors to their home; and up to 20 people at public gatherings.

The Premier's full statement is attached and here.

While this has been a challenging time, your commitment to our values is stronger and more important than ever. I am proud of how we are working as One Team to keep Melbourne moving towards, with Zero Harm at the centre of everything we do.

Kind regards,

Raymond
